

HEAD OF ROUTESETTING

YOUR BOULDERS. YOUR CREW. YOUR JOB.

APPLY NOW!

HEAD ROUTESETTER FOR BOULDERWELT IN HAMBURG (32-40H/WEEK)

We are excited to announce a rare opening for the position of Head Route Setter, where YOU could take the reins and realise your ideas and dreams! At Boulderwelt you will have the biggest and best canvas, and modern holds and plenty of volumes to show the climbing community just how good bouldering can be.

Boulderwelt Hamburg will be THE bouldering hall in the middle of Hamburg's city center, directly at the U-Bahn station Berliner Tor. From the end of December 2024, a large and cosy bouldering hall with everything a boulderer's heart desires awaits you on one level and light-flooded floor with over 2500 square meters of floor space: varied climbing walls, training facilities including traverses and a kilter and moonboard, with a focus on quality and refined route construction with modern holds. On top of that, we have our own children and family world, a stylish café, a wide range of courses and events and extensive opening hours 365 days a year.

You get a stage of almost 1500 sqm bouldering area and the coolest material to build the best boulder. In the Boulderwelt group, there are no limits to the development of route building and creativity. It is important to us to advance route setting, teamwork and the professionalization of the profession.

Boulderwelt is committed to developing the sport of bouldering, widening the boundaries of creativity, and turning the "job" of a routesetter into a career. It is our mission to professionalize routesetting and create long term career opportunities.

At Boulderwelt, you will be welcomed into a family-friendly working environment within a team of colleagues who share your passion for bouldering. Throughout your onboarding process you will learn about our Boulderwelt philosophy and internal company structures to help you find your feet and quickly become part of the team! Through our continued growth you will have a long term secure job position and the opportunity to advance within the Boulderwelt group.

Your commitment will be rewarded with flexible working hours, on the job training, attractive social benefits, discounts by our partners like La Sportiva, and of course exclusive bouldering in all Boulderwelt gyms! Not to mention, cappuccino on tap.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Leadership, training and coaching of the routesetter team
- Planning, management, and overall responsibility for all routesetting within Boulderwelt Hamburg
- Quality control and reporting of routesetting activities
- Active customer engagement to involve the community in the boulders and gather their feedback
- Interaction and representation in our social media channels
- Organisation and implementation of Boulderwelt competitions & events

REQUIREMENTS

- Minimum 5 years climbing and bouldering experience
- Personal fitness of minimum Fb 7a in diverse styles
- Minimum 3 years commercial routesetting experience
- Experience in personnel management
- Able to provide and receive constructive criticism
- Strong interpersonal skills and enjoys communicating with customers in the gym and via social media
- An eye for visual routesetting and photo and videography
- Physical fitness and resilience
- Experience in event organization
- Good level of computer competence and MS Office skills

Please send your detailed application, stating your salary expectations and possible starting date, to Marc Stellbogen until 15.11.24: jobs@boulderwelt-hamburg.de. We look forward to hearing from you!

Boulderwelt Hamburg • Berliner Tor • 20097 Hamburg